Immigration Law

Estate Administration

Ada is an associate in our Regina office. Ada maintains a practice primarily focused in the areas of family law, immigration law, and mineral estate planning and administration.

Overview

Ada was called to the Nigerian Bar in 2007 where she practised law in-house for over a decade with a major oil and gas company in Nigeria. Following her move to Canada in 2019, Ada earned her certificate of qualification to practice law in Canada from the Federation of Law Societies of Canada in 2021, and was called to the Saskatchewan Bar in 2023.

Ada volunteers with the Regina Open Door Society as a resource person for internationally trained lawyers, Family Law walk-in clinics organized by the Ministry of Justice, and Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan.

Ada brings a unique set of skills suited to cater to the evolving needs of Saskatchewan's diverse demographics. She is fluent in English and Igbo.
